Jared (Kings Of Guardian Book 5)

Synopsis

The jagged line between love and hate is paper thin and razor sharp. Pushing Christian across that line severs him from Jared's life until fate steps in giving Jared one last chance. Jared King had endured more than the normal amount of danger in his life. He'd jumped from planes into hot landing zones, been shot at, almost blown up twice, damn near killed more times than he cared to remember. Yet, nothing in his past compared to the danger of admitting his feelings for Christian Koehler. When Jared pushed Christian away too hard, once too often, the young man finally left and took Jared's heart with him. Once upon a time, Christian Koehler had idolized Jared King. But after two years of the arrogant man's hot and cold mind games, Christian avoided the sexy Guardian like the plague. The jagged line between love and hate was paper thin and razor sharp, and Jared had pushed Christian across that line, with prejudice. When Christian discovers what he believes is a common thread in several disappearances of the homeless and at-risk teens in his area, he immediately tells his superiors. But neither his employer nor the D.C. cops believe the missing children are connected. Desperate to find out the truth, Christian swallows his pride and returns to the Kings and Guardian for help. Jared seizes the opportunity to investigate the missing children and the unexpected chance to once again be part of Christian's life. What he finds leads to a tempest of deceit, danger and intrigue that pulls Christian back into Jared's world. This time, Jared vows to fight to keep Christian with him forever no matter the cost. Note to readers: Please be aware that Jared's story is a gay romance with explicit male on male sex scenes. For those who do not wish to read an m/m book, Jasmine's story will be released in Jan of 2017 and will recap any pertinent story line information from this novel. For my loyal readers who have requested this story, I hope you enjoy it as much as I do! Hugs, Kris
