Customer Reviews

What do you do... when the man of your dreams walks back into your life? You hold on tight and make sure he's not covered in butter.A political drama, second chance love and eroticism best covers this second book for new comer, Luke Reynolds.Thomas was back and he was hotter than ever! Alex could not believe his college crush, his ex roommate, the man he's lost his heart to seven years ago; the man who'd crushed him to a pulp when he's left like a thief in the night, was back. And Thomas came bearing gifts.One time ago, Alex was slated to be a political reporter. With a famous father, he left his wealth behind to make it on his own. However, sometimes life throws curved balls and the life intended gets swept under the rug. A lowly metro reporter, Alex is barely scraping the barrel for a decent story. Throw in a jealous immediate boss and he will never see politics as it was intended to be written.You're mine. Was this what I wanted? A relationship...from a man who could never commit to a place, let alone a person?When Thomas reenters his life with a story that can catapult his sinking career, Alex grabs the bull by the horn and does an expose that blows a politician out of the water. Along the way, he reconnects with Thomas moving from friends to lovers. But can his heart take it when free spirited Thomas decides it's time to move on? How will Alex survive another seven years with a broken heart? There is much growing up in this book and a heart's song that kept me going. Two songs were my repeat playlist, but one stood out, especially halfway through til the end... the slow version of Safety Suit's Never Stop.I simply enjoyed this book.
