I have had a goiter for 15 years, all levels are normal, yet surgeon wanted to removed my thyroid simply because of its size. I refused. I am excited to try out Andrea's suggestions--there is nothing that will put me at risk, plus it is good overall health sense. The fact she was able to shrink her thyroid back to its normal size gives me hope!

I have followed Andrea Beaman for many years now and have her other two books that are well loved and dog eared from being referenced over and over. I really like this new book also. Another winner. She has a conversational style manner in the book and you can feel the personal touch she manages to deliver in print. So many great tidbits of advice here. And of course the recipes are yum and amazing. I think this book is very helpful to those needing to help their thyroid but also breaking old diet/lifestyle myths of the last 30 years.

I love Andrea, she is so full of life. Her story is inspiring. Being able to use food as her medicine is wonderful. I wish everybody would read and understand that food can be your ally. It is so much better than medications.

It was a good book. I wanted to see how people could heal without thyroid medicine their thyroid. I can't eat coconut oil or oats etc. I need no gluten/dairy/soy/sugar/GMO...vitamins/good oils/minerals...probiotic...LDN...detoxing to be ok. Gluten/hidden gluten can make antibodies to the thyroid. I can't eat any food with a label or certified gluten free or nuts not sold in the shell/meat basting/some spices etc since it has hidden gluten in it. I need to be very strict with my diet. Healing the root cause is better than just taking thyroid medicine, but I get blood clots due to low thyroid/depression no medicine can help due to low oxygen in my brain and 100% constipation. Zinc/Se/enough iron/probiotic may help convert T4 to T3. Eating organic/good water (not tap water with F)/sunlight/exercise/nature/love/pets/touch/God/prayer. Mg, fish oil, Vit C, Vit D3, HCl and enzymes with meals, Vit B12 methylcobalamin shot/intrinsic factor kind, MTHF, conenzyme Q10, rhodiola and more help me. I would like to only need to eat food that is healthy, but my body/brain needs more right now. I enjoyed the book. I am glad she is helping people learn how to take care of their health in natural ways. Best wishes.
