Keta Miha: And Other Poems

Synopsis

California writer, Mateo Lara's poetry, can only be described as painfully exquisite. Lara is the recipient of the 5-Star Stanton Book Award. With works ranging from blissful love, humorous revenge, LGBT issues (and a little bit of naughty stuff), Lara's collection is an excellent 'friend' in your backpack and a gift of rare, literary diamonds on your shelf. When asked on the meaning of his title, Keta Miha, Lara replied, "It's a combination of Ketamine, an ancient drug that puts you in a trance-like, relaxing state. Keta is a series of rapid images that take you from the present to the past. And Miha, well, that's my friend's name. He disappointed me with the universe." • Combine the concepts together and we have Keta Miha, Mateo Lara's indelible, neon collection of love, agony, and truth.

Customer Reviews

Each poem is inspiring and uplifting, even at times dark it reminds you that life isn't always perfect but still beautiful.

Sometimes you must be a harsh critic, and sometimes, you must be proud. And this makes me proud and hurt, all at once.
