Customer Reviews

George Washington's Mount Vernon is not only an American landmark but a landmark of what America is, a warm, welcoming and gracious home. This beautiful book takes you through a four season walk of Mount Vernons spectacular grounds and a detailed and historical tour of the homes interior. With the easy interesting writing and the spectacular color photography all guided by the expert hand of Wendell Garrett, we learn and understand Washington's love and devotion to his beloved home. For anyone searching for detailed information on colonial interiors or historical gardening ideas, this book will be a welcomed addition to your home library.

I have numerous books about Mount Vernon. This book is an especially nice one with up-to-date photographs and new discoveries from one of America's most visited homes. If you are a fan of George Washington and his Mount Vernon, then this book is a "must have!"
